Intro

1. Watch you climb up in - to the blue. You climb just like a bird. — With wings of steely
2. Now you're gone — and far a - way. Where snow capped moun - tains rise. — A - bove the slee - py grey so bright, you fly with grace and flair. — I know now — that I love you. — My towns so small, where peo - ple fear the dark. — But I know now — that I love you. — My heart just tells me so. — My thum - ping heart says I love you — and I al - ways will.

heart just tells me so. — My thum - ping heart says I love you — and I al - ways will.

— Refrain: Wel - come home, my thum - ping heart it beats for you. — It thumps the whole day long.

— I long for you, — I fear for you. — Now that you're a - way. — But I will wait — till — you re - turn, — come back to my arms. — My thum - ping heart — tells me you'r safe, — so fear, I — need no more. — Your
